Abram Solved a Quarrel

GENESIS 13

The time had come for Abram to leave Egypt. At this time Abram was rich in livestock, silver, and gold. He took all that he owned, along with his wife, Sarai, and nephew, Lot. Lot also had flocks, herds, and tents. As they traveled, the herdsmen of Abram's livestock and the herdsmen of Lot's livestock began to quarrel. There was not enough land to support all of Abram and Lot's cattle and possessions.

Abram told Lot, "We are relatives! Please, let's not argue. Look at all the land before us! Let's separate. If you go to the left, I will go to the right, and if you go to the right, I will go to the left."

Lot looked out and saw that the Jordan Valley was well watered. It reminded him of the land they left in Egypt, so Lot chose the Jordan Valley for himself. He journeyed eastward and set up his tent near the city of Sodom.

Abram went toward the land of Canaan. Then the Lord said to him, "Look at the land to the north, south, east, and west. I will make your family so large, you won't be able to count your offspring—they will be like the dust of the earth! Get up and walk the length and width of the land, for I will give all of it to you and your family."

Abram trusted God. Abram moved his tent and cattle and servants to the land, and there he built an altar to the Lord.
